Re: Two very simple questions.

Why have you not granted Attorney General Greg Stumbo the hearing he has requested to demonstrate the millions of dollars that Atmos is over-earning every year? I can't understand, unless you have something to hide, why you would not grant such a hearing.

Have you ever closely examined a detailed financial statement of Atmos' profit margins and/or percentages before you granted them a consumer price increase, and if so what were your findings? If not, why not?

Thank you for your time. I will look forward to your reply to the above questions. I will report your answers to Attorney General Stumbo, including if I fail to receive answers.

Sincerely,

Tom Loveless
